PRESS RELEASE

JENNIFER ANISTON AND MANY HOLLYWOOD "A" LISTERS:

Seeking Spiritual Balance is Bogus!

Carlsbad, CA, July 6, 2005: US Weekly Magazine reported that Jennifer Aniston is taking the time to find deeper truths by pursuing spiritual guidance to create a more balanced and centered life.

James A. Ray, a leading professional and spiritual growth expert and teacher says, "That's a bunch of bunk! Look at a scale in balance. It's stagnate. There's no movement, no energy, no growth... In fact, no life. People who rant about achieving balance are on the right track, but they're getting off at the wrong station. The real key to success isn't balance, it's harmony. And only Harmonic Wealth™ can bring true happiness."

Ray has distilled the concept of Harmonic Wealth into a free 2-hour seminar which is being held July 15th in Carlsbad, California at the Four Seasons Hotel and Resort. See www.HarmonicWealth.com.

Spiritual balance is a growing phenomenon that even Hollywood "A" listers can't resist. Well, sooner or later, these highly intelligent and successful individuals are going to learn that "balance" is a bunch of bunk, and the sooner the better.

"Just like the harmony created by each unique and important instrument in an orchestra causes your emotions to soar (like an eagle rising on an invisible thermal), complete harmony in your life causes your level of happiness, wealth and success to soar."

Ray is an expert in teaching individuals how to achieve the state of total Harmonic Wealth that top stars, such as Jennifer Aniston, Tom Cruise and John Travolta (as well as a growing legion of not-so-famous people), are desperately searching for.

The Creating Absolute Wealth seminar will explain in detail how success is a science and how the principles of quantum physics (as seen in the movie What the Bleep) can be applied to proven success-building techniques. James A. Ray will also cover why people who are successful in one area of their life tend to be successful in all areas. He calls this a state of total Harmonic Wealth, a deep-down piece of mind that comes with true and complete financial, relational, emotional, physical and spiritual wealth.
